- Basic outpatient lab services through your primary care provider. X-ray services through the Victor J. Cassano Health Center and Grandview Medical Center when ordered by your primary care provider.

Who is eligible?

Once an individual is enrolled for Montgomery County Care, health care benefits will be administered by CareSource, a managed health care company, through Community Health Centers of Greater Dayton, Five Rivers Health Centers, other designated primary care provider and a network of specialty providers in Montgomery County.

An approved member will remain eligible for coverage for 12 months from the start date, within the coverage limits of the program. Montgomery County Care is scheduled to end December 31, 2013, as the Affordable Care Act goes into effect. The Affordable Care Act allows for expanded Medicaid eligibility and health insurance exchanges that provide subsidized coverage for eligible people. Eligibility requirements and enrollment information are expected to be available by mid-2013.

Please note: Changes in your household income or adding other medical coverage may change your eligibility for the Montgomery County Care program.

What costs are involved?

There are no annual premiums for individuals enrolled in the Montgomery County Care program. However, the program does require minimal co-pays for some services and prescription drugs. The program has a total individual benefit limit of $30,000 per calendar year that includes a $3,500 pharmacy benefit limit.

The co-pay schedule is below:

Montgomery County Care Co-Pay Amounts

Specialty Care.....	$10

Prescription Drugs.....	$5
($3,500 annual pharmacy benefit limit)

Choosing a Primary Care Provider

When you enroll in the Montgomery County Care program, you will be asked to select a primary care provider (PCP) or practice from among the physicians and nurse practitioners of the Community Health Centers of Greater Dayton, Five Rivers Health Centers, or other designated primary care provider. If you do not select a PCP, one will be assigned to you. Your PCP is your personal health care provider who will provide your care or send you to other providers (specialists) if needed.

Your PCP will work with you to coordinate your health care. Your PCP will treat you for most of your health care. If needed, your PCP will send you to other providers (specialists). Your PCP's name and phone number are on your Montgomery County Care member ID card.

Changing your PCP

A limited number of primary care providers is available for the Montgomery County Care program. PCP changes within or between practices must be approved by the practice manager at the facility where the member intends to receive care.

Montgomery County Care members scheduling primary care appointments may be seen by a resident physician or certified family nurse practitioner.

To change your PCP, you must first call the Member Services department to ask for the change. CareSource will send you a new member ID card to let you know that your PCP has been changed and the date you can start seeing the new PCP.

Making appointments with your PCP

Schedule visits with your PCP as far in advance as possible. Always keep your scheduled appointments. If you need to reschedule, change or cancel an appointment, call your PCP at least 24 hours in advance.

How and when we use or share your PHI

CareSource is required by law to keep your PHI private. We must also give you this notice of our legal duties and how we keep your information private. Below are the ways the law allows or requires us to use or share your PHI without getting your permission.

To pay claims — We may use or share your PHI in order to pay for health services you receive. We may also give your PHI to another health plan that may need it to process and pay claims for you.

To operate our business — We may use or share your PHI to administer our health plan. For example, we may use it to review and improve the quality of health care you receive, to contact you to remind you about an appointment, to tell you about a different type of treatment, or to send you health-related materials.

Sometimes we give your PHI to outside organizations so they can assist us with our operations. They include lawyers, accountants, consultants and others. We require them to keep your PHI private, too.

So you can get treatment — We may share your PHI with a friend, a family member or others when you need care and are unable to make health care decisions for yourself at the time. For example, if you are unconscious or if there is an emergency, we may find it in your best interest to share your PHI with a relative or friend so they can help you get the care you need. If you are able to make health care decisions for yourself, we will not share your PHI with others unless you ask us to.

Other uses and disclosures — We may share your PHI:

Special Rules for Disclosure of Your Mental Health, Substance Abuse, HIV/AIDS, and Long-term Care Information — Ohio law requires that we obtain your authorization in many instances before disclosing the performance or results of an HIV test or diagnosis of AIDS or an AID-related condition; before disclosing information about drug and alcohol treatment you may have received in a drug and alcohol treatment program; before disclosing information about mental health services you may have received; and before disclosing certain information to Ohio's long-term care investigators. USING ADVANCE DIRECTIVES TO STATE YOUR WISHES ABOUT YOUR MEDICAL CARE

Many people today worry about the medical care they would get if they became too sick to make their wishes known.

Some people may not want to spend months or years on life support. Others may want every step taken to lengthen life.

You Have a Choice

A growing number of people are acting to make their wishes known. You can state your medical care wishes in writing while you are healthy and able to choose.

Your health care facility must explain your right to state your wishes about medical care. It also must ask you if you have put your wishes in writing.

This information explains your rights under Ohio law to accept or refuse medical care. It will help you choose your own medical care.

This information also explains how you can state your wishes about the care you would want if you could not choose for yourself.

This information does not contain legal advice, but will help you understand your rights under the law.

For legal advice, you may want to talk to a lawyer. For information about free legal services, call 1-800-589-5888, Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

What are my rights to choose my medical care?

You have the right to choose your own medical care. If you don't want a certain type of care, you have the right to tell your doctor you don't want it.

What if I'm too sick to decide? What if I can't make my wishes known?

Most people can make their wishes about their medical care known to their doctors. But some people become too sick to tell their doctors about the type of care they want. Under Ohio law, you have the right to fill out a form while you're able to act for yourself. The form tells your doctors what you want done if you can't make your wishes known.

What kinds of forms are there?

Under Ohio law, there are four different forms, or advance directives, you can use. You can use either a Living Will, a Declaration for Mental Health Treatment, a Durable Power of Attorney for medical care or a Do Not Resuscitate (DNR) Order.

You fill out an advance directive while you're able to act for yourself. The advance directive lets your doctor and others know your wishes about medical care.

Do I have to fill out an advance directive before I get medical care?

No. No one can make you fill out an advance directive. You decide if you want to fill one out.

Who can fill out an advance directive?

Anyone 18 years old or older who is of sound mind and can make his or her own decisions can fill one out.

Do I need a lawyer?

No, you don't need a lawyer to fill out an advance directive. Still, you may decide you want to talk with a lawyer.

Do the people giving me medical care have to follow my wishes?

Yes, if your wishes follow state law. However, Ohio law includes a conscience clause. A person giving you medical care may not be able to follow your wishes because they go against his or her conscience. If so, they will help you find someone else who will follow your wishes.

Living Will

This form allows you to put your wishes about your medical care in writing. You can choose what you would want if you were too sick to make your wishes known. You can state when you would or would not want food and water supplied artificially.

How does a Living Will work?

A Living Will states how much you want to use life-support methods to lengthen your life. It takes effect only when you are:

- In a coma that is not expected to end, OR
- Beyond medical help with no hope of getting better and can't make your wishes known, OR
- Expected to die and can't make your wishes known.

The people giving you medical care must do what you say in your Living Will. A Living Will gives them the right to follow your wishes.

Only you can change or cancel your Living Will. You can do so at any time.

Do Not Resuscitate Order

State regulations offer a Do Not Resuscitate (DNR) Comfort Care and Comfort Care Arrest Protocol as developed by the Ohio Department of Health. A DNR Order means a directive issued by a physician or, under certain circumstances, a certified nurse practitioner or clinical nurse specialist, which identifies a person and specifies that CPR should not be administered to the person so identified. CPR means cardiopulmonary resuscitation or a component of cardiopulmonary resuscitation, but it does not include clearing a person's airway for a purpose other than as a component of CPR.

The DNR Comfort Care and Comfort Care Arrest Protocol lists the specific actions that paramedics, emergency medical technicians, physicians or nurses will take when attending to a patient with a DNR Comfort Care or Comfort Care Arrest order. The protocol also lists what specific actions will not be taken.

You should talk to your doctor about the DNR Comfort Care and Comfort Care Arrest order and protocol options.

Durable Power of Attorney

A Durable Power of Attorney for medical care is different from other types of powers of attorney. This information is only about a Durable Power of Attorney for medical care, not about other types of powers of attorney.

A Durable Power of Attorney allows you to choose someone to carry out your wishes for your medical care. The person acts for you if you can't act for yourself. This could be for a short or a long while.

Who should I choose?

You can choose any adult relative or friend whom you trust to act for you when you can't act for yourself. Be sure to talk with the person about what you want. Then write down what you do or don't want on your form. You should also talk to your doctor about what you want. The person you choose must follow your wishes.

When does my Durable Power of Attorney for medical care take effect?

The form takes effect only when you can't choose your care for yourself, whether for a short or long while.

The form allows your relative or friend to stop life support only in the following circumstances:

- If you are in a coma that is not expected to end,
OR
- If you are expected to die.

Declaration For Mental Health Treatment

A Declaration for Mental Health Treatment gives more specific attention to mental health care. It allows a person, while capable, to appoint a proxy to make decisions on his or her behalf when he or she lacks the capacity to make a decision. In addition, the declaration can set forth certain wishes regarding treatment. The person can indicate medication and treatment preferences, and preferences concerning admission/retention in a facility.

The Declaration for Mental Health Treatment supersedes a Durable Power of Attorney for mental health care, but does not supersede a Living Will.

What is the difference between a Durable Power of Attorney for medical care and a Living Will?

Your Living Will explains, in writing, the type of medical care you would want if you couldn't make your wishes known.

Your Durable Power of Attorney lets you choose someone to carry out your wishes for medical care when you can't act for yourself.

If I have a Durable Power of Attorney for medical care, do I need a Living Will, too?

You may want both. Each addresses different parts of your medical care.

A Living Will makes your wishes known directly to your doctors, but states only your wishes about the use of life-support methods.

A Durable Power of Attorney for medical care allows a person you choose to carry out your wishes for all of your medical care when you can't act for yourself. A Durable Power of Attorney for medical care does not supersede a Living Will.

Can I change my advance directive?

Yes, you can change your advance directive whenever you want.

If you already have an advance directive, make sure it follows Ohio's law (effective October 10, 1991). You may want to contact a lawyer for help. It is a good idea to look over your advance directives from time to time. Make sure they still say what you want and that they cover all areas.

If I don't have an advance directive, who chooses my medical care when I can't?

Ohio law allows your next-of-kin to choose your medical care if you are expected to die and can't act for yourself. If you are in a coma that is not expected to end, your next-of-kin could decide to stop or not use life support after 12 months. Your next-of-kin may be able to decide to stop or not use artificially supplied food and water also.

Other matters to think about

What about stopping or not using artificially supplied food and water?

Artificially supplied food and water means nutrition supplied by way of tubes placed inside you. Whether you can decide to stop or not use these depends on your state of health.

- If you are expected to die and can't make your wishes known, and your Living Will simply states you don't want life-support methods used to lengthen your life, then artificially supplied food and water can be stopped or not used.
- If you are expected to die and can't make your wishes known, and you don't have a Living Will, then Ohio law allows your next-of-kin to stop or not use artificially supplied food and water.
- If you are in a coma that is not expected to end, and your Living Will states you don't want artificially supplied food and water, then artificially supplied food and water may be stopped or not used.
- If you are in a coma that is not expected to end, and you don't have a Living Will, then Ohio law allows your next-of-kin to stop or not use artificially supplied food and water. However, he or she must wait 12 months and get approval from a probate court.

By filling out an advance directive, am I taking part in euthanasia or assisted suicide?

No, Ohio law doesn't allow euthanasia or assisted suicide.

Where do I get advance directive forms?

Many of the people and places that give you medical care have advance directive forms. Ask the person who gave you this information for an advance directive form — either a Living Will, a Durable Power of Attorney for medical care, a DNR Order, or a Declaration for Mental Health Treatment. A lawyer could also help you.

What do I do with my forms after filling them out?

You should give copies to your doctor and health care facility to put into your medical record. Give one to a trusted family member or friend. If you have chosen someone in a Durable Power of Attorney for medical care, give that person a copy.

Put a copy with your personal papers. You may want to give one to your lawyer or clergy person.

Be sure to tell your family or friends about what you have done. Don't just put these forms away and forget about them.

Organ and Tissue Donation

Ohioans can choose whether they would like their organs and tissues to be donated to others in the event of their death. By making their preference known, they can ensure that their wishes will be carried out immediately and that their families and loved ones will not have the burden of making this decision at an already difficult time. Some examples of organs that can be donated are the heart, lungs, liver, kidneys and pancreas. Some examples of tissues that can be donated are skin, bone, ligaments, veins and eyes.

There are two ways to register to become an organ and tissue donor:

1. You can state your wishes for organ and/or tissue donation when you obtain or renew your Ohio Driver License or State I.D. Card, or
2. You can complete the Donor Registry Enrollment Form that is attached to the Ohio Living Will Form, and return it to the Ohio Bureau of Motor Vehicles.
